Hi, Ruben.

I'll loop China, from Caltrans, in on a separate email to address debris on their property.

Thanks,

Mandy

Hi Kevin,

Just wanted to give you a heads up that the team is addressing the two burnt encampments at this location. We had a late start this morning due to our rear loader having some mechanical difficulties. We'll try to address everything we can today and anything remaining we will address first thing monday morning. Would you happen to have any connections with the State highway? A lot of the burnt debris is on some of their property.
